

AWAITS APPROVAL OF HIS RELATIVES

Thaw's Plans for Defense Complete, but Still Subject to Some Change.

MOTHER AND SISTER COMING

Fugitive Does Another Day's Work on Correspondence and Law.

Richmond, N. H., September 20.—Plans of the defense in the extradition proceedings against Harry K. Thaw, and awaited the approval of the Mattenawan fugitives' mother and sister, who, with the latter's husband, George Lauder Carnegie, were expected later in the day.

Thaw was anxious to explain to his family his reasons for placing his case wholly in the hands of his New Hampshire counsel. The latter are working in complete harmony with former Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania, the personal representative of the Thaw family.

Felker to Do Justice.
Reports that Governor Felker was inclined to give Thaw his liberty and leave the final disposition of the case to the Federal courts, finds no support in a statement from the executive to the effect that he would appear on Tuesday with a perfectly open mind. His determination was, he said, that justice should be done.

Searches Law Books.
Thaw slept later than usual this morning, and when he appeared at breakfast he was in the best of spirits. He said he was ready for another hard day's work with the correspondence and the law books, which he is searching for precedents bearing on his case. "My counsel are working very hard, you know," said he, "and I shall do my part."

NEWPORT BEAUTY BREAKS SILENCE

Mrs. Hyphenated Bruguiere Tells Court in Divorce Bill of Husband's Cruelty.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
San Francisco, September 20.—Maryon Andrews-Bruguiere-Denning-Bruguiere, social favorite in exclusive circles of Newport, New York, and Paris, because of her far-famed beauty and vivacity, has broken a ten-year silence to tell the long-hidden reasons for her separation and subsequent divorce from Dr. Edgar S. Bruguiere.

Mrs. Bruguiere tells her story in an amended complaint, which she filed in the local courts on September 16 last, and which is in support of her claim for $400 a month maintenance money from Dr. Bruguiere.

She says she left her husband because of his cruel and inhuman treatment. Beginning with February 29, 1903, one month after their marriage, she says, and continuing until the day of her separation, her husband every day would pinch her arms until they were black and blue from the elbows to the shoulders, and she never was free of the disgusting marks.

On September 5, 1913, she says, she was ascending the stairs at her home at 2800 Van Ness Avenue, when her husband, without any reason, flew into a rage, grabbed her by the hair, dragged her to the foot of the stairway and threw her violently to the floor.

On the night of December 2, 1902, she says, in a fit of rage, her husband drove her with his infant son in her arms into the street, and she was forced to seek shelter temporarily with friends.

When she remonstrated with her husband because of his friendship for other women, he said, he choked her. On July 21 he pointed a pistol at her and threatened to take her life. Three days later, she says, on advice of her mother, she left him.

Tiny Sponsor Christens Big Derrick Scow at Newport News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Newport News, Va., September 20.—With Little Miss Marguerite Post Smith as sponsor, the big derrick scow constructed at the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock plant was launched Tuesday with unique and impressive ceremonies. The sponsor was perhaps the youngest ever to christen a ship, but she performed her part with as much assurance and self-possession as a much older woman. She was attended by her maid, Little Miss Elizabeth Copeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Copeland.

Nothing was omitted in the preparations for the launching, and the new craft was given as auspicious a send-off as the greatest battleship ever launched here. Little Miss Smith is a niece of the late Walter A. Post, for many years the president of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company.

Justice of the Peace Given Dose He Frequently Gave Others.

Milwaukee, Wis., September 20.—Colonel Francis J. Borchardt, sixty-three years old, a justice of the peace, well known in National Guard and political circles throughout Wisconsin, to-day was sentenced to nine months at the House of Correction by Judge Page for contributing to the delinquency of girls. Four young girls were in court to testify, but were not called, because a plea of guilty was entered.

Borchardt was a candidate for district judge at the last election, opposing Judge Page, who to-day sentenced him.

Sisters Meet Death Together.
Waco, Tex., September 20.—Two widowed sisters, Mrs. Emma Zehner, fifty, and Mrs. L. E. Benjamin, forty-five, walked together in front of a Baltimore and Ohio train at Crumville, Tenn., and were instantly killed.

The sisters, walking arm in arm and carrying umbrellas, failed to see the approaching train because of the heavy rain. Their bodies, hurled fifty feet, were found still arm in arm.

Health Restored by Eckman's Alternative
If you are a sufferer from Glaucoma, Tuberculosis, or know of anyone so afflicted, it might be well to investigate this case, where the writer declares after a year of suffering, he found permanent relief and full recovery to health by Eckman's Alternative, a medicine which has been effective in many cases of Tuberculosis.

In March, 1913, my doctor pronounced my case "Tuberculosis in the Glaucoma," and a number of operations in a hospital failed to benefit me. In the meantime, a friend of mine advised Eckman's Alternative, which I bought and used. I started to take it. After using two bottles in four days, I was improved. I gained weight, could eat and was able to sleep. I continued using it until I was well, which was in November, 1913. Before I took the medicine I had three hemorrhages; since I have been taking it I have not had any. On November 12, 1913, I started to work, and since that time I have not lost one day's work through sickness. I highly recommend Eckman's Alternative to anyone who is suffering from Glaucoma.

Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious in cases of Glaucoma, Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, Asthma, Stomach Aids and in upbuilding the system. Does not cause sickness, highly recommended for all leading druggists. Write the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for full telling of recoveries and additional evidence.

GIRLS RESCUED FROM BURNING BUILDING
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
St. Paul, Minn., September 20.—Forty-nine girls were rescued by firemen from the upper floors of a six-story building occupied by Louis F. Dow & Co., which was destroyed by fire this afternoon. All were assisted to safety by a single fire-engine in the rear of the structure. James Conley and Mike Zeller, employees, were seriously burned, and their condition is critical.

The flames gained great headway, while the greatest point of fire, the order gave first attention to the saving of life rather than property, and the entire structure was ablaze when the last girl was carried to safety. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

DIFFERENCES SETTLED AND STRIKE CALLED OFF
Galveston, Tex., September 20.—Three thousand five hundred longshoremen, cotton screwmen and drymen settled their differences to-day and called off the strike which has crippled the Galveston waterfront for several days. The principal issue, that negro cotton screwmen become unionized, was settled by the proposition that they affiliate with the International Longshoremen's Union, with a separate charter.

In Texas City, on the mainland, where the longshoremen struck Monday in sympathy with the Galveston men, work will be resumed Sunday.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, September 20.—Mlle. Polaire, who once laid claim to the distinction of being the ugliest woman in the world, arrived to-day from Paris.

The French actress was a source of much curiosity on the voyage, chiefly owing to her habit of wearing a large pearl nose ring.

"But even the pearl nose ring cannot console me for the loss of my petit choux, my little pig, you know, who jumped from my arms into the sea just three days ago. I loved the little fellow, and I gave him a collar studded with diamonds and rubies."

Mlle. Polaire will tour the United States with her troupe, including the English dancer, and Gertrude Hoffman in presenting "Le Vaisseau," a vehicle written especially for the trio.

"AERIAL DERBY" RUN OVER LONDON

English Airman Takes First Money, and American Is Sixth.

London, September 20.—The "Aerial Derby," an aeroplane race of ninety-five miles, the course forming a complete circuit of the course forming a complete circuit of London, was flown to-day. There were eleven entries. The race started from the aerodrome at Hendon, the first flying machine leaving at 4 o'clock and the others at intervals of one minute.

W. L. Brock, the only American aviator in the race, was the third to start. The Swiles and seven Britons.

Gustav Hamel, a well-known English airman, finished first and won £1,500 in cash and a gold cup, valued at £200. The American, Brock, was placed sixth.

DEATH PAPERS OF NEW YORK UNDER AN EXAMINATION

fronted with Schmidt in the Tombs to-morrow or Monday.

Muret Claims Chicago as Birthplace.
"Dr." Muret, alleged confederate of Schmidt in his counterfeiting scheme, stated to-day that he was born in Chicago, and left there for Germany with his parents when he was about three years old. He denied many of the police statements concerning his record in London and elsewhere, but declined to volunteer any facts concerning himself.

The police, he said, wanted this information, and should be compelled to "dig it up" themselves. He denied that he had ever used an alias, and said he had never been in trouble with the police before now. He specifically denied to-night that he had used the name of Arthur Heibing in Hamburg or London, but said he had recently met a man of that name.

He also said he had never used the name of Dr. Arthur Heibing, and was not in Chicago during the trial for the murder of Johann Hoch, who, by the way, came from the same part of Germany that Schmidt came from. He had no knowledge of Schmidt's counterfeiting schemes, he said. As to the use of the name "Dr. Ernst," he had used it for a special reason, but not as an alias.

Inquest to Be Public.
The inquest into the death of Anna Aumuller will be held in the Criminal Courts building this week, and will be public. The case will be heard before a jury. Schmidt will be given an opportunity to testify regarding his confession to the police.

Detectives are engaged in an investigation of all recent deaths in St. Joseph's parish, to which the priest-murderer was attached. One of the death certificate blanks in Schmidt's room appeared to have been used for some purpose, although it has not been located in the mortuary records.

Inspector Faurot announced that by noon to-morrow he will have rounded out a complete case against Schmidt as the murderer of Anna Aumuller, and promised some further startling disclosures regarding the career of this versatile criminal.

Vera Disappears.
London, September 20.—Miss Vera Harris, who signed herself "Your loving friend, Vera," in her many letters to Ernest Muret, "Bluebeard," who was hanging in 1905 after murdering one of the twelve wives he was known to have married, was either a brother or a close relative of Johann Schmidt, the New York priest who confessed to killing Anna Aumuller, the attorney who defended Hoch.

Hoch told me he came from Mainz, and that he had relatives living there," said Pitke to-night. "The pictures I have seen of Schmidt bear such a striking likeness to Hoch that if Schmidt had been a known man, I would have taken him for Hoch. The faces of the two men were alike, especially in the breadth of the jaw."

Muret Is Identified.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Hamburg, September 20.—The Hamburg police to-day identified Arthur Heibing, the Chicago "Bluebeard," who was arrested in connection with the confessed murderer, Johann Schmidt, Heibing, or Muret, joined the Young Men's Christian Association here, and is known to have been in trouble with the police on several occasions. Heibing disappeared from Hamburg in 1903 after warrants charging swindling had been sworn out against him both here and in Berlin. These warrants still stand against Heibing.
